

Nightwatch

in Scotland

Hotel, Housekeeping Staff

Perpetrators aren't always easy to spot.
YOU can help by being vigilant and knowing what to look for:

- Sign of parties in the room
- Drugs and alcohol supplies
- Guests in and out of the room
- A lot of visitors to one room
- Young people with adults that don't appear to be family members
- Adult person appears to have control over a young person or speaks for them
- Lots of condom wrappers
- Blood and faeces stains in the room
- Stained bed linen
- Guests who don't want their room cleaned
- Young people loitering in the bar, reception or corridor areas
- Frequent visitors who do not appear to have a reason for being at the hotel
- Guests who are in and out of the hotel at odd times

YOU just got a feeling that something's not right?

If you see something suspicious or you think sexual exploitation is happening in your hotel, speak to your manager and

CALL 101

If someone is in immediate danger call 999

Believe in children

Barnardo's Scotland

In partnership with

Scottish Government
Riaghaltas na h-Alba
gov.scot