

What is Child Sexual Exploitation?

- A form of sexual abuse.
- When children and young people receive “something” (e.g. food, alcohol, drugs, cigarettes, somewhere to stay) for taking part in sexual activity.
- When offenders have power over their victims.
- When perceived consent does not undermine the abusive nature of the act.

How does this make me feel?

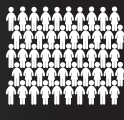

- I’m worried for them?
- None of my business?
- Do their parents know?
- Oh well – we were all young once?
- Wouldn’t let mine or those close to me do this?
- What if that was my child?

If you feel a young person is in immediate danger call 999

If you have concerns about a young person or a situation you have witnessed call 101

Always take notice of behaviour, note descriptions of individuals/clothing/vehicles.

And remember CSE relates to anyone aged under 18 years.

Sexual exploitation affects thousands of children and young people across the UK every year.

CSE involves perpetrators grooming their victims in a range of ways, such as in person, via mobiles or online, to gain their trust before emotionally and sexually abusing them for their own gain.

Despite common perception, this is an issue that affects both girls AND boys alike.

Barnardo's is the largest provider of child sexual exploitation support services in the UK. We worked with over 5000 children, young people and their family members in 2015-16.

Victims are often too scared to come forward, or might not even recognise that they are being exploited. They need our help.

Most sexual exploitation takes place in private, but public places are often used to meet, groom and abuse young people.

Children are most vulnerable to sexual exploitation between the ages of 13 and 15, but younger victims are being targeted all the time.

As a business, you may notice behaviours that give you cause for concern, it may be nothing but it also may be something. It is important you don't keep any concerns to your self.
