

South Ayrshire Children's Services Planning: From evidence to strategic planning - why focus on babies to age 3?

Three years of CSP evaluation

Quarterly data analysis

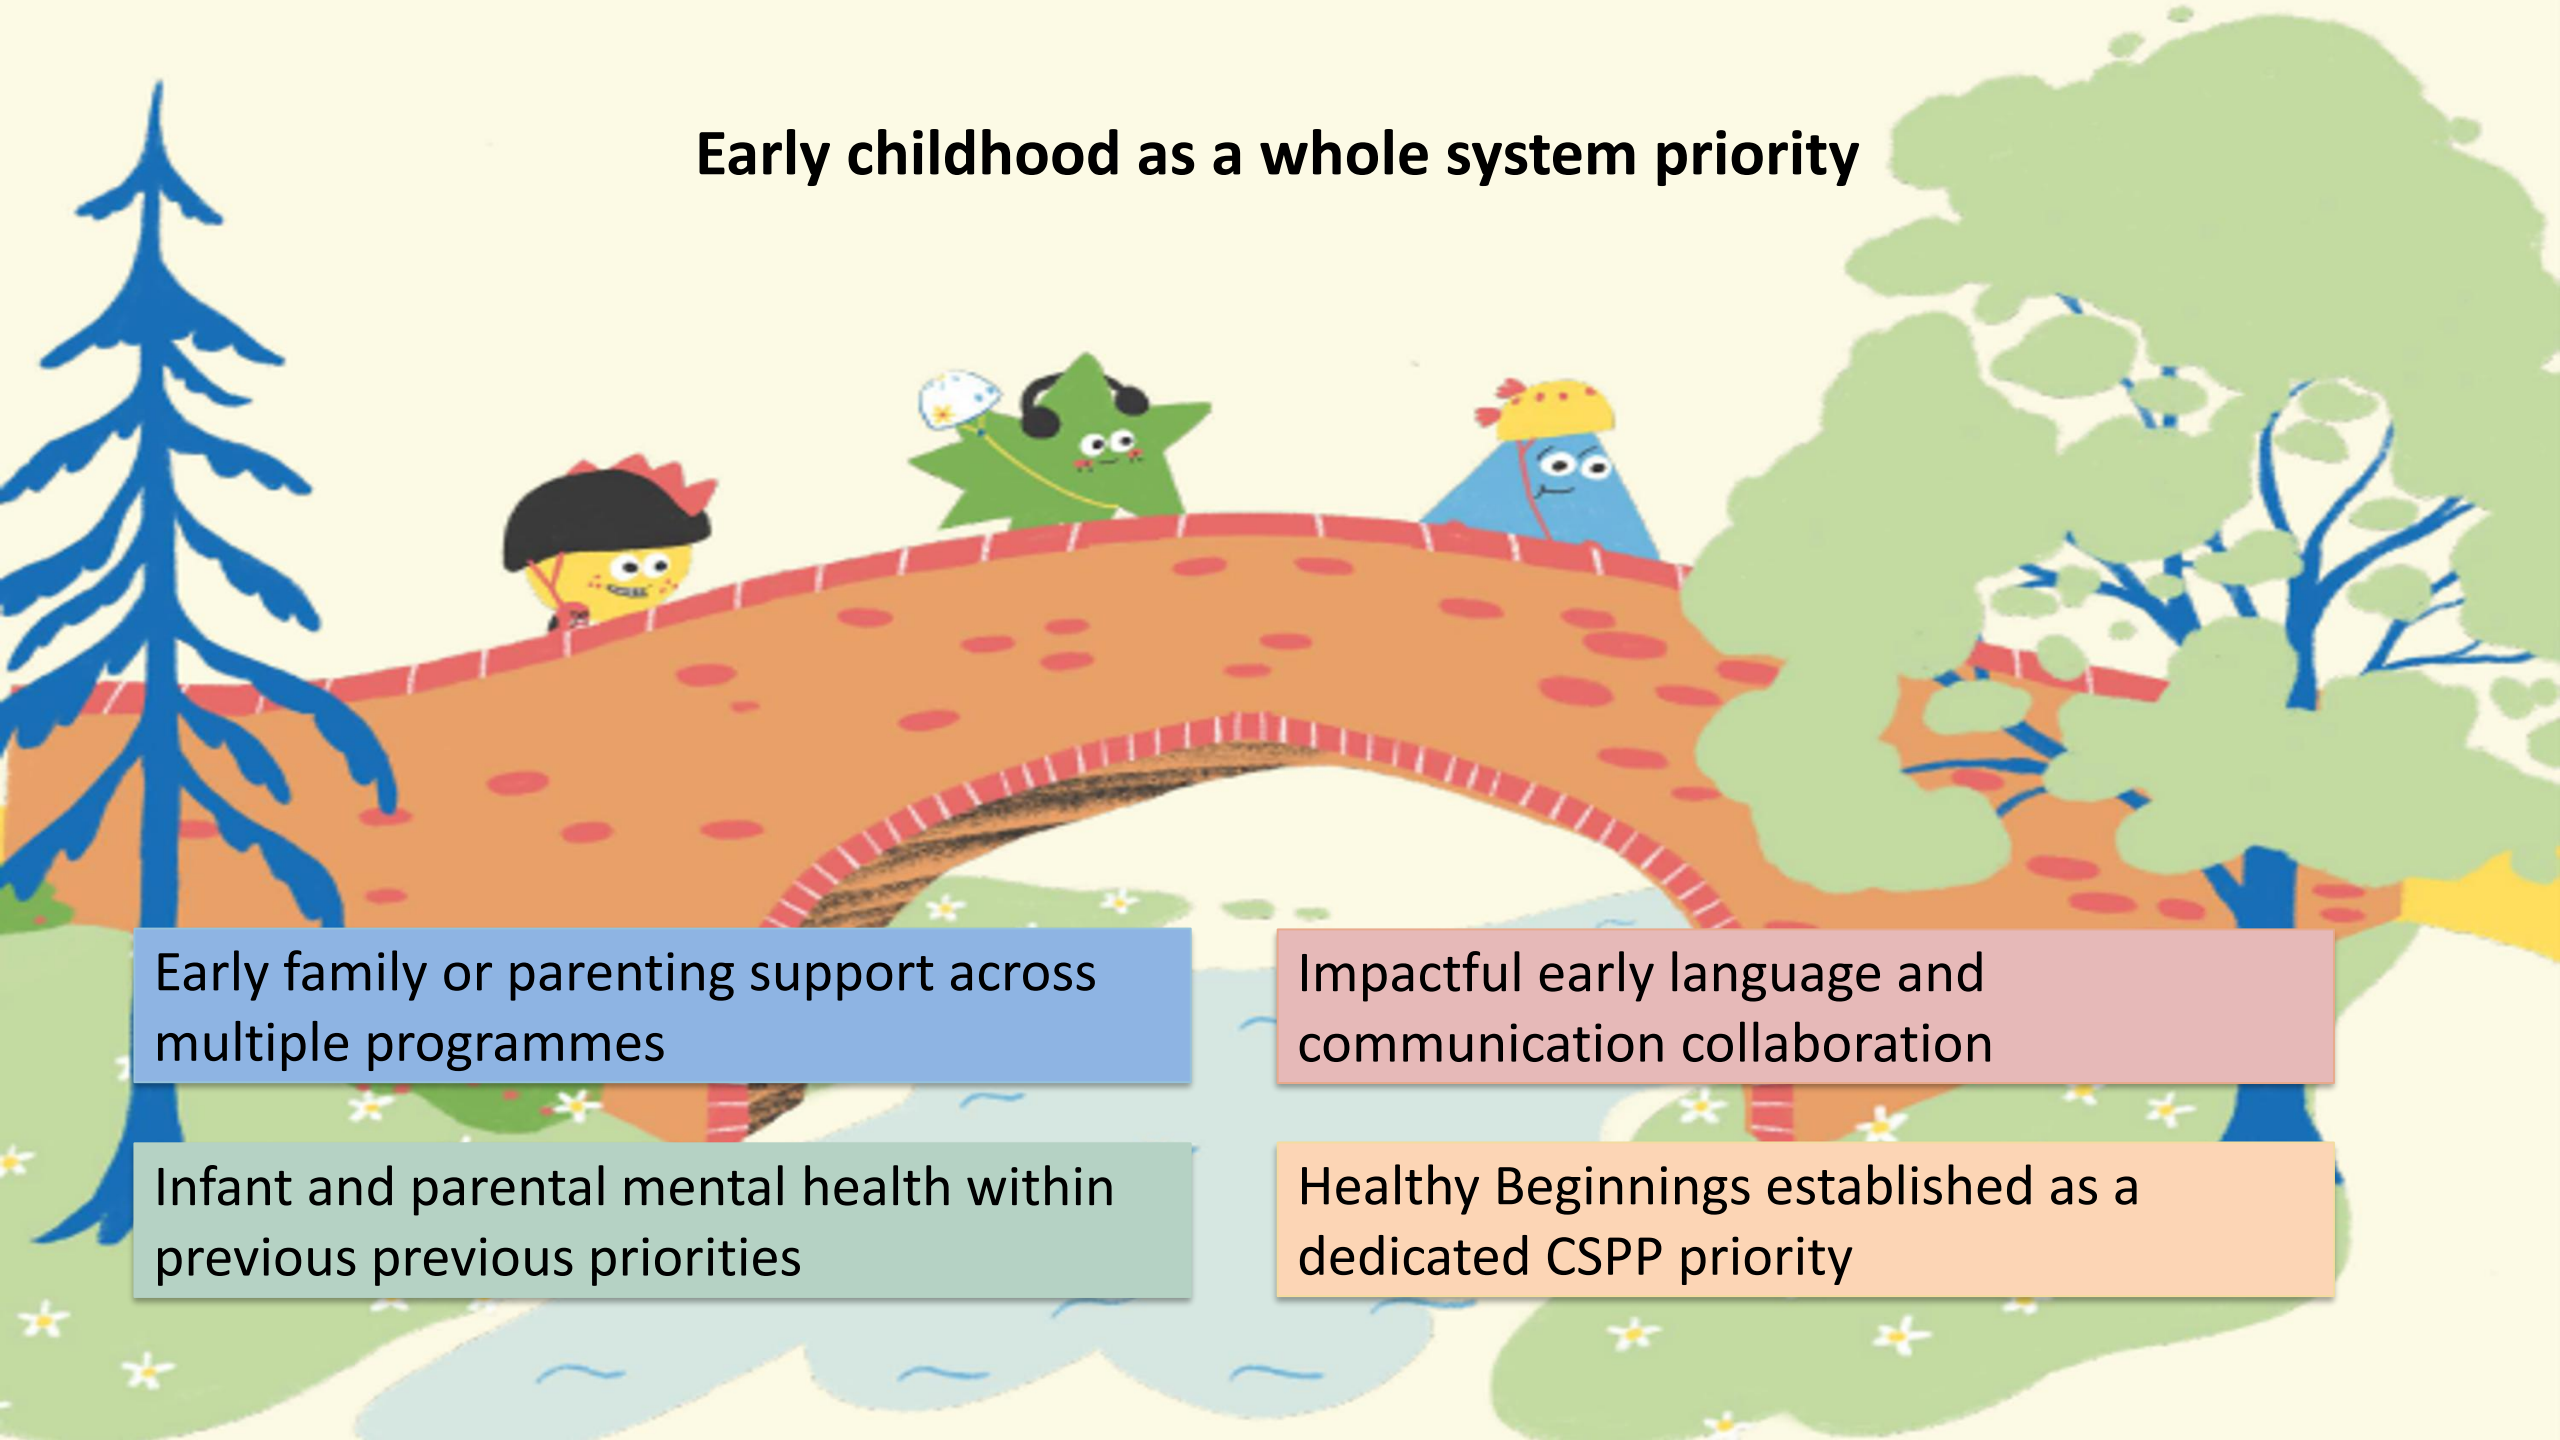

Independent evaluation (Horizons)

Family voice and lived experience

Nesta work and mapping of systems

Joint Strategic Needs Assessment

Early childhood as a whole system priority

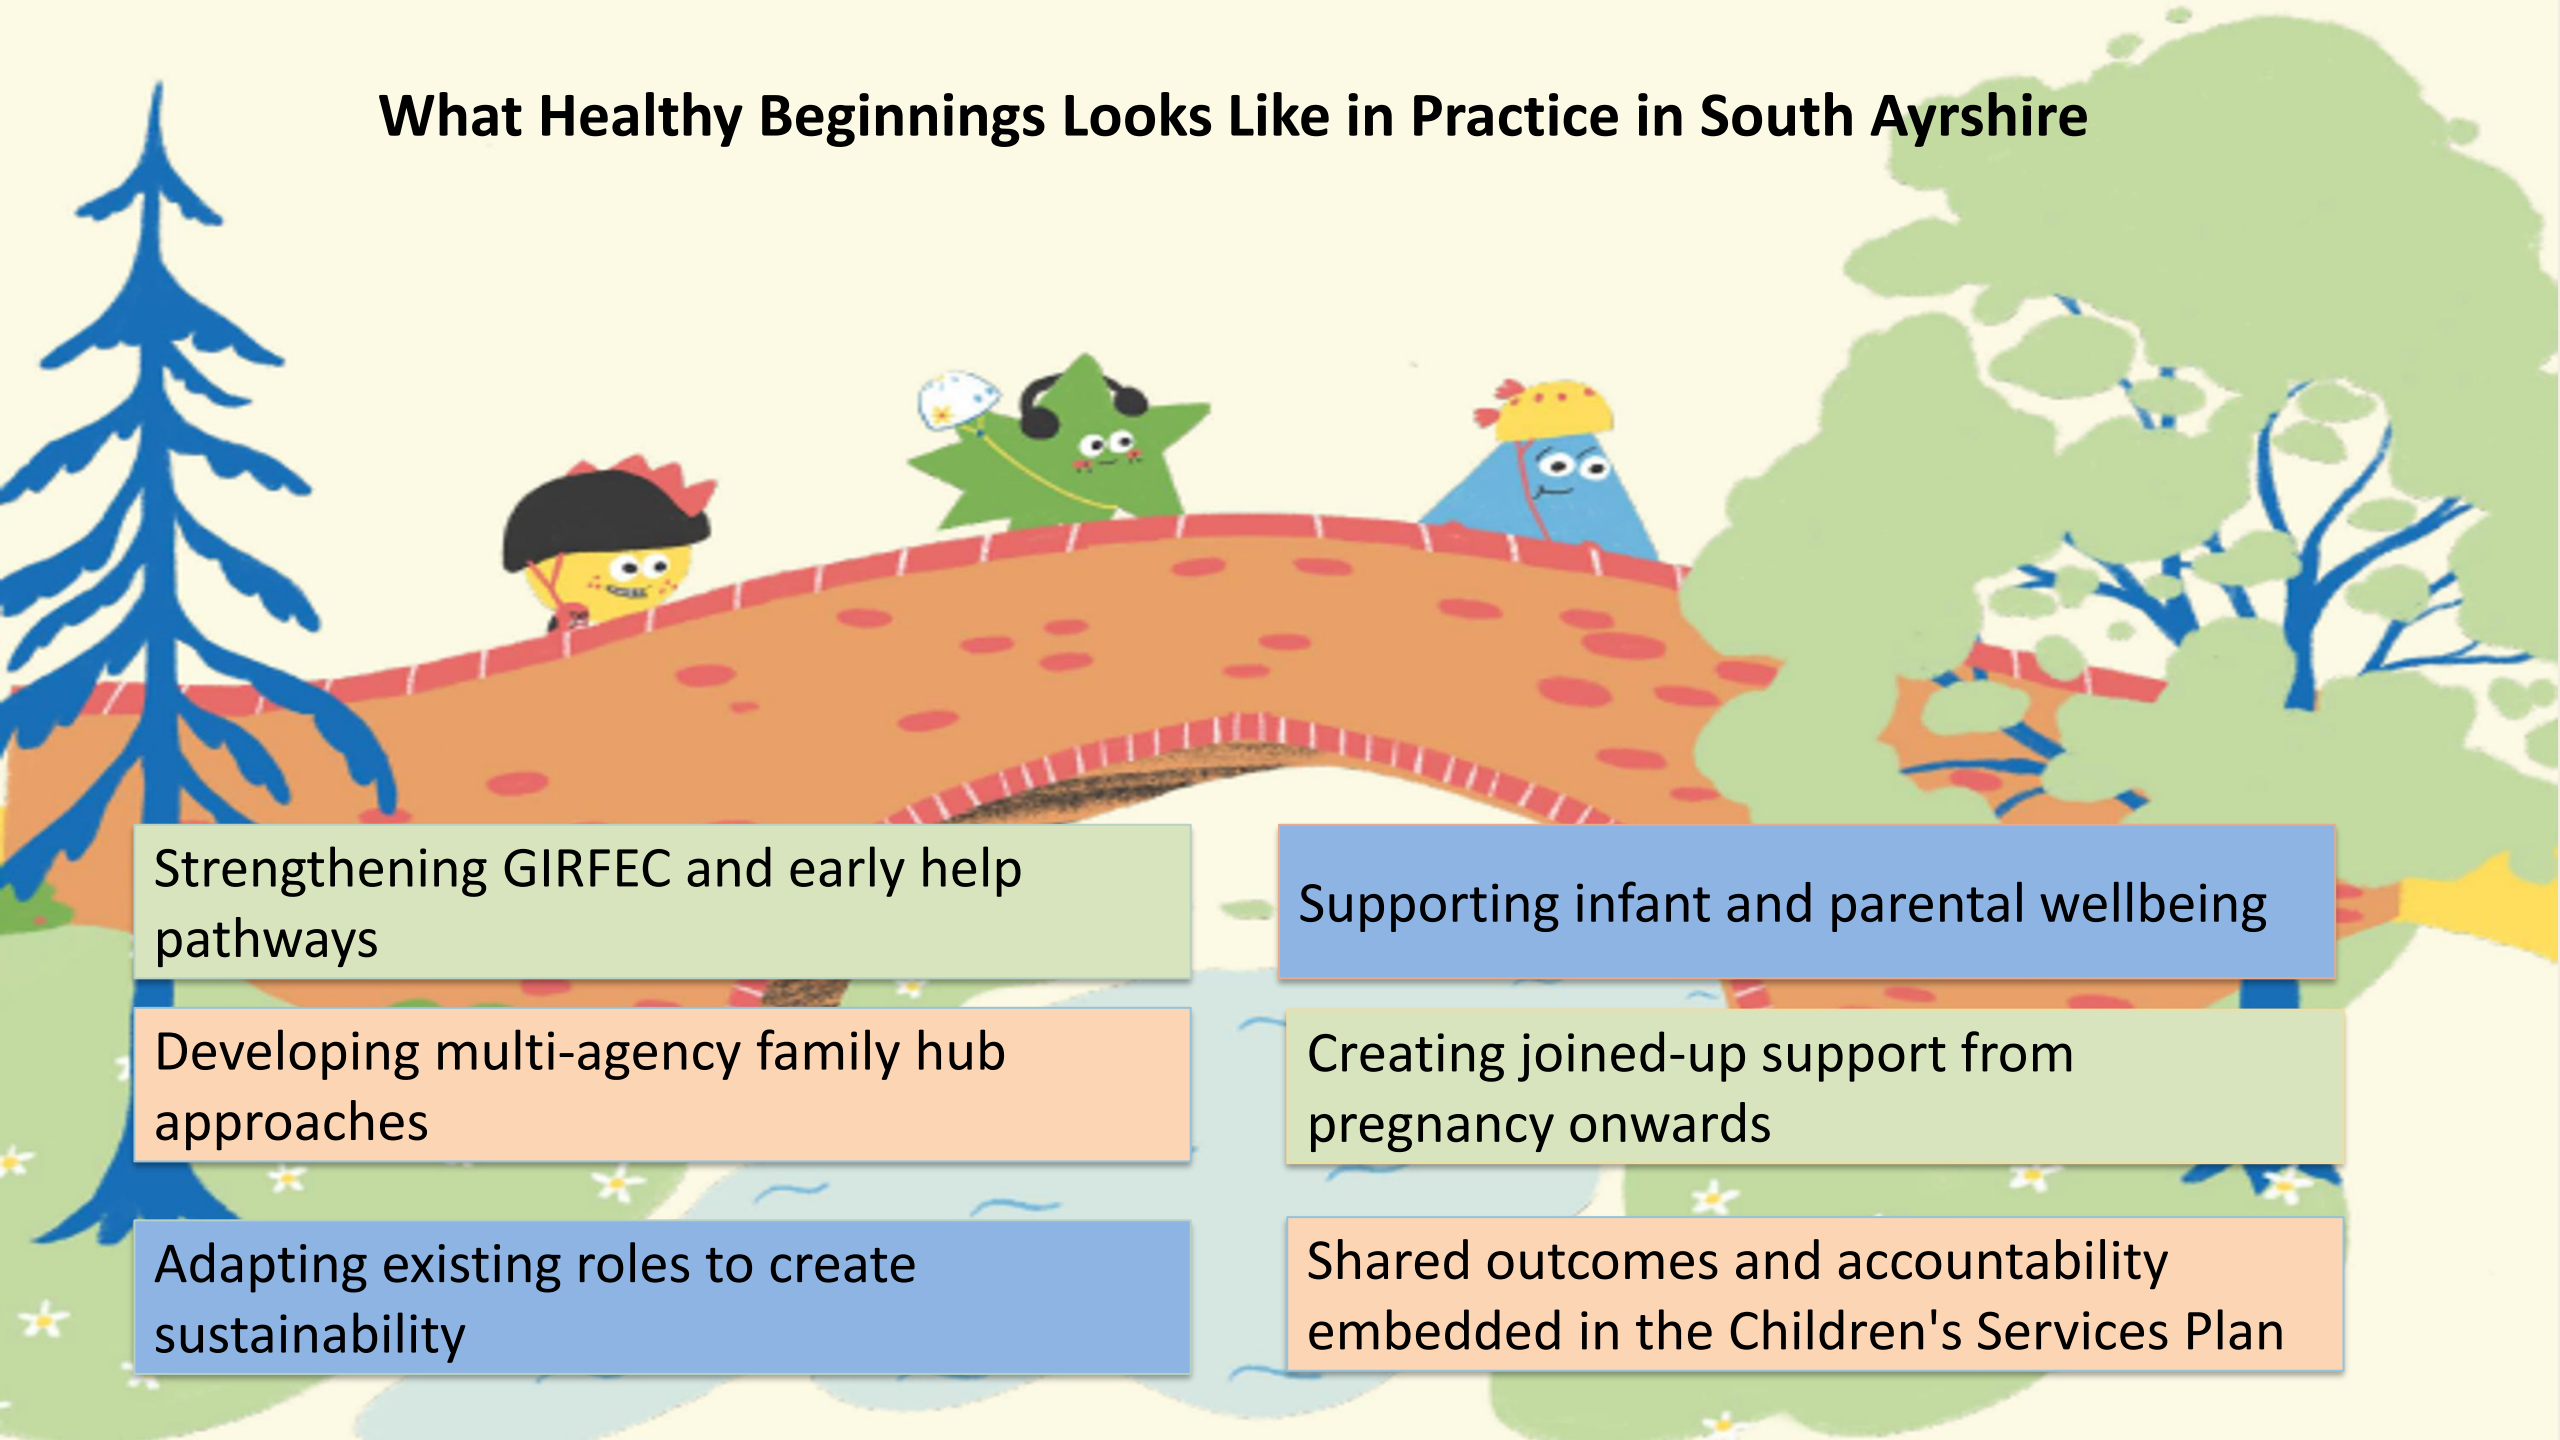

Early family or parenting support across multiple programmes

Infant and parental mental health within previous priorities

Impactful early language and communication collaboration

Healthy Beginnings established as a dedicated CSPP priority

What Healthy Beginnings Looks Like in Practice in South Ayrshire

Strengthening GIRFEC and early help pathways

Developing multi-agency family hub approaches

Adapting existing roles to create sustainability

Supporting infant and parental wellbeing

Creating joined-up support from pregnancy onwards

Shared outcomes and accountability embedded in the Children's Services Plan